Dear Conference Participant,

Thank you for participating in the Creating Responsive Systems for Children Exposed to Domestic Violence Conference held in Walnut Creek on October 4-5, 2007.

Over 257 professionals attended the conference and rated their experience positively: 95% rated the overall conference program as good or excellent; 95% rated the effectiveness of presenters as good or excellent; 97% found that the conference enhanced their understanding of how children are impacted by domestic violence.

Thank you for committing your time and energy to creating responsive systems for children who have been exposed to domestic violence. Together we can work with so much more efficiency and potency.

We hope you will continue to join us as we convene stakeholders, provide professional development training, and offer consultation and support. For more information contact Reina Sandoval Beverly, Safe and Bright Futures Partnership Coordinator at (510) 307-4156.

We have attached the commitments made by conference participants. Please visit our website at www.contracostazt.org to get more information about Contra Costa County's Safe and Bright Futures for Children Exposed to Domestic Violence Partnership.
